PERFECT CHURCH MEMBER

The masculine gender will be used to save space in the following!

The "Perfect Church Member" has undergone special training to withstand any abuse which can be given him. He has a bionic body that keeps him from ever getting sick or depressed. Every part of his body is warranted for a lifetime. He comes with a matching spouse and perfect children and is ready to serve seven days a week and twenty-four hours daily.

He uses his talents freely and never has to be coaxed to be active. He has a sense of humor and knows the answer to all Bible questions asked. He's thick skinned to withstand all insults. He maintains an eternal smile. His shoulders are strong enough to bear his problems and yours. He arrives early at every service. He nor his family never, unless on his death-bed, misses a service. He shakes every hand at every service and is free with hugs. He and his family always sit in the middle of the pew leaving room for others who arrive later. He always sings on key and the wife never wears a high hat so that others can see the pulpit area. He never complains. He is always friendly and never gossips. He invites visitors back to services as well as to his home for fellowship. He does great as he remembers names of all church members and welcomes all visitors. He's available any time of day or night to lend a helping hand to another in need. He is a tither plus. He is a good Bible student and would never think of putting company, lodge meetings, or sports, ahead of Sunday School, evening, or mid-week services. He has an iron stomach and is able to digest any of the dishes brought to a "covered dish supper". He lives in a home that is good, but not better than any other member. He visits all the sick, the shut-ins, backsliders and angry members. He is very evangelistic and mission minded. He always practices the "Golden Rule".

If your church is searching for the PERFECT CHURCH MEMBER, you should attempt to get your order in immediately, as there seems to be a shortage of the PERFECT CHURCH MEMBER. Seemingly, preachers are always looking for the PERFECT CHURCH. If you are aware of any (Perfect Preacher or Perfect Church Member) please advertise such in the KYOWVA Evangelistic Association Newsletter, as the ad will probably receive many preachers' resumes and requests for Church Membership. May each Christian and church realize it's shortcomings and pray for preachers and for the church members for which Jesus died.
