

"ANTI-SCRIPTURAL DOCTRINES"

By Dr. Hoyt W. Allen, Jr.

Many times one accepts what one hears as being the truth. In fact, once someone was heard saying that if one is not taught the truth he will believe a lie. Everyone of us believe what we presently believe because someone has led us there. If we are Christians we know who has had some influence on us to lead us to our present position. However, if we had been born in a third world country and no Christian Missionary found us and taught us, we might be a worshipper of the sun, moon, trees, or who knows what. May the Bible always be the standard by which we measure our beliefs.

Even as careful as one attempts to be some erroneous doctrines have crept into many of our pathways and now they are being believed by many. Some of these false doctrines are as follows:

- A.D. 135 - Premillennialism (A 1,000 Year Earthly Reign Of Christ)
- A.D. 400 - Total Depravity (Man Can Not Chose To Be Saved)

Into the Literal Body and Blood Of Christ, Via The Priest)
- A.D. 1215 - Confession Of Sins To Priest
- A.D. 1268 - Priest Has Power To Forgive Sins
- A.D. 1311 - Sprinkling Authorized As Baptism, Instead Of Immersion
