

"WAS MAN CREATED TWICE?"

By Hoyt W. Allen, Jr.

In Genesis 1:27 the Bible states, "God created man in his own image...". Then in 2:7 the Bible states, "And the Lord God formed man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living being (soul)". Next in 2:21,22, the Bible states that the Lord God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep; and while he was sleeping, he took one of the man's ribs (part of his side) and closed up the place with flesh. Then the Lord God made a woman from the rib (part) he had taken out of the man, and he brought her to the man".

Some have asked, "Why does the Bible repeat the creation of man?" Wasn't one recording enough?" To answer this is possibly difficult. But, we find in the Bible on numerous occasions that our Lord does some repeating. Seemingly, He does this when He wants to make an emphasis. An example of such may be seen in the book of Deuteronomy. This Old Testament Book commonly is identified as the farewell speech of Moses to the people of Israel just before his death. The title of the book comes from the Greek word Deuteronomion, which means "second law." In his address, Moses underscored and repeated many of the laws of God that the people received at Mount Sinai about 40 years earlier. He also challenged the people to remain faithful to their God and His commands as they prepared to enter the Promised Land (from Nelson's Illustrated Bible Dictionary).

It is a smart move on the part of anyone desiring to have a deeper look into the Scriptures to secure a number of different translations and Bible commentaries. Also, acquiring a Parallel Bible, which has several translations on one page which one can see all at one time is a very good companion to a Bible student.

To give an answer to the title of this article - NO, God did not create man twice. He only gave a repeat of the activity. Let us remember, man is a created being and not a product of evolution.
