LINCOLN MEMORIAL

Inscribed on the wall of the north chamber is a Scripture quote from Matthew 18:7

WASHINGTON MONUMENT

Finished in 1844, eight selections of Scriptures are inscribed in the stone blocks. They include part of Psalm 19:1 "The heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament sheweth his handywork." Luke 18:16 "Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God." At the top of the marble structure is an aluminum capstone which reads, "Praise be to God."

THE PRAYER ROOM IN THE CAPITOL

A large open Bible lies on the altar facing a stained glass window showing George Washington in prayer. The House of Representatives directly behind the Speaker's rostrum is inscribed in huge gold letters: "IN GOD WE TRUST".

THE SUPREME COURT BUILDING

The Supreme Court building, completed in 1935, has not one, but two huge carvings of the Ten Commandments. One is a marble relief of the Ten Commandments forming the base for a giant American eagle directly behind and above the head of Chief Justice. The other is on the top wall directly in front of the Chief Justice. Another is on the top wall directly in front of the judges and features Moses carrying the Ten Commandments.

THE WHITE HOUSE

Cut into the marble fireplace is President John Adam's prayer.

THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

Displayed on the walls are quotations from Psalms, Proverbs, and Micah.

THE PENTAGON

Flanking the main entrance are two signs which read: "Worship daily according to your faith." A large mural of a family praying together in church is painted on the stairway wall.

STATE CONSTITUTION

All 50 state constitutions contain a statement of faith recognizing dependence on Almighty God. Together they become the expression of the faith of the American people.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

Words "under God" adopted by Congress, June 14, 1954.

May each citizen of the United States understand from where we have come and be very proud of it. The Bible must be restored in our nation if God the Creator is to continue to bless us. Please, let's do our part to continue on with a God-Provided nation.
