

“SALVATION IS LIKE A PIE...”

by Dr. Hoyt W. Allen, Jr.

One piece of a pie is only one piece and not the entire pie. When it comes to salvation, a person needs to be careful that one complies with the entire directions that God extends to a person in order to receive salvation that comes to mankind, via Jesus Christ.

If one repents but refuses to be baptized, does he have the entire plan of salvation? If one is baptized but then refuses to become an active member in the Lord's church, is this acceptable to God? If one becomes a church member, but refuses to live a faithful Christian life, will God approve of this?
